WELCOME & CONTENTS

A Slower Kind of Christmas

Some places celebrate Christmas at full volume. We prefer ours the North Norfolk way; unhurried, generous, and warm to the core. Behind the brick-and-flint walls of our converted barns, where Langham's glassmakers once worked through winter by furnace light, the fires are lit, the kitchen is at its most ambitious, and there is absolutely nowhere you need to be.

CHRISTMAS AT THE HARPER

Christmas, Entirely Taken Care Of

Christmas Eve / 24 December

Your room is ready and so is your welcome: a hamper of festive treats, warm mince pies, and a Harper Christmas cocktail, mixed and waiting. Settle in, then join us for a relaxed three-course dinner from our 3-3-3 menu as the house fills with the scent of woodsmoke and pine.

Christmas Day / 25 December

A proper breakfast to open proceedings, presents at your leisure, and then the main event: a three-course Christmas lunch in the Gather, pre-ordered so the only decision left on the day is red or white.

Come evening, when appetites quietly return, a generous knife-and-fork buffet appears. No dress code, no ceremony, just very good leftovers-that-aren't.

Boxing Day / 26 December

Brunch, late and lingering. Then the day is yours: the beach walk, the pool, the armchair by the fire and the book you've been meaning to start. We'll gather again with an evening of canapés and small plates.

27 December

One last breakfast, taken slowly. Then home, rested, well fed, and already plotting next year.

The details

Three nights, arriving 24 December and departing 27 December, with all dining above included. Prices are per room.

NEW YEAR'S EVE AT THE HARPER

See It Out in Style

One night, done properly. Champagne on arrival, cocktails and canapés before dinner, and then five courses, pre-ordered and unhurried, from a kitchen showing off in the best possible way. Afterwards, the party moves to The Den; dancing, the countdown, and a champagne toast as the clock strikes twelve.

New Year's Day

Brunch, restorative by design. Guests staying one night check out refreshed; those who've had the good sense to stay a second can spend the first day of the year on the beach or in the pool, before a relaxed three-course dinner from our 3-3-3 menu, the gentlest possible start to 2027.

The details

One glittering night, or make a weekend of it for an extra £395! The two-night option adds a full extra day, a relaxed 3-3-3 dinner on New Year's Day evening, and breakfast on the 2nd before you go. Prices are per room.

FESTIVE PARTIES

Your Party, in The Den

Group
bookings for 8–12
people

The Den was made for nights like these. Exposed brick and flint, low light, music that's yours to choose. A private space with the run of a very good kitchen and a bar that takes celebration seriously. Bring the team, the family, or the friends you only manage to assemble once a year, and we'll do the rest.

Festive party menus from the Gather kitchen, drinks pairings from The Old Glassworks, and a team who'll have thought of everything before you've had to ask. Book the evening, stay the night, bedrooms are rather conveniently upstairs.

A Table for the Inner Circle

Our private dining experience is the festive gathering at its most civilised: one long table, a menu built around the season's best, and the kind of service that appears exactly when needed and never before.

Perfect for family Christmases that outgrew the dining room, board dinners with better wine than the boardroom, or simply an excuse to gather the people you like most. Wines chosen to match, and the whole evening paced to your table.

For bookings of 8–12 people in The Den, please email celebrate@theharper.co.uk.

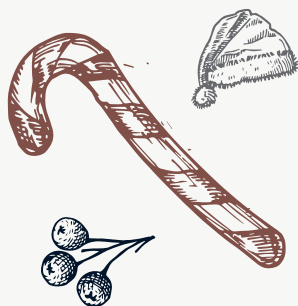

DOGS WELCOME

Don't Forget the Whole Family

Christmas isn't Christmas with someone left at home. Dogs are very welcome at The Harper, and, frankly, rather spoiled! Every four-legged guest is greeted with their own welcome pack, a proper Harper dog bed for the duration, and a dog bath ready and waiting for the post-beach rinse-down. North Norfolk's big, boundless beaches were made for winter walks with a dog at your heel; we just make sure everyone comes home warm, clean and well looked after.

Dogs stay for £25 per night, with bed, bath, and a welcome pack included.

The Thursford Christmas Spectacular

NOW

The biggest Christmas show in Europe happens to be just down the road. Thursford's legendary Christmas Spectacular returns for its 49th year – three hours of singing, dancing, comedy and full-tilt festive variety, with a cast of 130 performing amid glowing mechanical organs and vintage fairground carousels. It sells out for good reason.

Running 10 November to 23 December 2026, with matinee and evening performances, it's the easiest excuse imaginable to make a night of it in North Norfolk.

The Harper Way to do Thursford

Stay with us and the whole evening falls into place. A pre-theatre dinner in the Gather early enough to make the curtain, good enough that you won't feel you've compromised then a short drive to the show, and no long journey home afterwards. Just your room, a nightcap in The Old Glassworks if the encore left you wanting more, and breakfast the next morning before the beach.

Tickets are booked directly with Thursford; rooms and pre-theatre tables are booked with us. We'd suggest doing both sooner rather than later.
